ABOUT UNIVERSITY

The University of Osijek was founded on 31 May 1975. University strategic aim is to assure internationalization at all levels of academic and research activity and to become widely visible and competitive in the international higher education community, while establishing efficient cooperation with universities worldwide.

The University vision is directed toward developing creative and innovative strategies that will be applied through a strategic planning process and aimed to allow for overall advancement of academic and social well-being. The University of Osijek connects research, artistic creation, teaching and studying, thus developing science, profession and arts. It prepares students for professional work based on scientific knowledge and methods, educates young researchers, participates in realisation of students' social interests and promotes international, particularly European cooperation in higher education, in science and arts.
